Property Description

This charming 2-bedroom apartment of 63 m<sup>2</sup> offers comfortable living in a fantastic location, just a 5-minute walk from the center of Antibes. The apartment is situated in a small, quiet residential complex with only 8 apartments, built in 2009, providing a pleasant and private atmosphere.

The living room is bright and airy, leading out to a spacious west-facing terrace of approximately 16 m<sup>2</sup>, perfect for enjoying the afternoon sun and overlooking lush greenery. The two bedrooms come with ample storage space, making this home ideal for both permanent living and as a holiday retreat.

The apartment includes a bathroom and a separate toilet, offering a practical and functional layout. It is also sold with a large garage in the basement, providing secure and convenient parking.

A comfortable and well-maintained home, perfect for those who want to live close to the center while still enjoying peace and greenery.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of ours agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
