Property Description

In the early 1900s, this stately villa was built as a 'hunting lodge' on a plot of over 5,000 m<sup>2</sup>. History shows that the property has been owned by famous soap makers and notables of this region, and now this beautiful country house with swimming pool and private chapel is waiting for its next owner.

Over the 3 floors, with entrances on the ground and first floors, are 6 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, an additional shower room, a lounge, dining room, kitchen, utility room and on the ground floor a spacious entrance hall / vestibule.

Surrounding the house are terraces with fountains; a vegetable and walking garden with 'restanques', a garden with the well-maintained swimming pool equipped with an automatic cover for swimming even in the low season.

At the end of the drive are 2 garage boxes and there is ample parking space.

The maintenance is good; the roof has been maintained annually, almost all windows have been replaced in style and fitted with double glazing and last year the liner and filter system of the pool were replaced. The terrace around the house is by 'Pierre de France' and a high-pressure cleaning will bring back its former glory.

Besides city water, there is a well and under one of the terraces a generous extra catchment which is naturally replenished. Annual maintenance is also carried out here with checks on the water, pumps and filters.

There are expansion and splitting possibilities that I would be happy to show you at a viewing. We offer this unique property with a competitive asking price bearing in mind that there is a need for investment to tackle the 'old glory' in style!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
