Property Description

Discover this house full of character, meticulously maintained and accessible by car, yet offering a peaceful setting. On the lower first floor, you'll find a spare bedroom with shower room and toilet, currently used as a laundry room. The upper first floor features a welcoming dining room with fireplace and old Sine stone pile, plus a separate, fully-equipped kitchen.

Upstairs, the bright master bedroom has an en-suite bathroom with shower and WC, while on the second floor, a living room bathed in light thanks to front windows and a Velux window offers a breathtaking sea view. An additional bedroom with washbasin completes the space.

The house also benefits from a roof terrace, offering unobstructed views of the sea and mountains. Modern comfort is assured with reversible air conditioning in the living room, master bedroom and guest bedroom. Heating and hot water are provided by town gas, with mains drainage. Ideally located just a few minutes from Place du Château and the town's amenities, this property is a unique opportunity not to be missed!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
