Property Description

In a highly sought-after residential area, nestled at the foot of the Château de Mouans-Sartoux and surrounded exclusively by villas, discover this charming family home that is sure to captivate you.

Set on a flat plot, this villa of approximately 150 m² offers a generous living space featuring a bright, cathedral-ceilinged living room, a separate kitchen, three bedrooms, a laundry room, and two bathrooms.

An elegant annex enhances the property, comprising a large garage/workshop and a beautiful wine cellar, topped by an independent studio of about 22 m².

All the rooms in the main house, as well as the studio, open onto a delightful mosaic-tiled pool, creating a warm and intimate patio-like atmosphere. The 1,500 m² plot is beautifully landscaped with lush Mediterranean vegetation.

Let yourself be charmed by this unique property, waiting for you to unlock its full potential!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
