Property Description

Lovely contemporary house built on the heights of Maussane, enjoying a privileged and sought-after location, close to the village and its shops within walking distance, but also to the very chic Domaine de Manville with its magnificent golf course, restaurants, and social life.

Designed by a renowned architect, the house offers an idyllic and luxurious living environment in a refined style, with a panoramic view of the Alpilles, the village bell tower, and the surrounding wild nature, as well as a magnificent garden with its 13-meter pool.

The entrance leads to a living area that can be independent, with a living room, kitchen, and 3 beautiful en-suite bedrooms, pantry, and garage.

The upper floor, accessible by an elevator, houses the heart of the home with a magnificent living room, kitchen, dining room, opening onto beautiful terraces with a view, and a large master suite of over 80 m² with bathroom (with a view), office, library, dressing rooms, and laundry room.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
