Property Description

Magnificent neo- provencal villa with panorama view overlooking the Sea – Cap d’ Antibes, Mountains and Haut de Cagnes, 180 degrees south west.

This beautiful villa is in prime location of the historic seaside village of Cagnes Sur mer at the heart of the Cote d’Azur, between Nice and Cannes.

The villa is located in the much sought after Les Collettes area, once home of the great painter August Renoir.

The stunning, uninterrupted 180 degrees south-west view of Sea, Mountains and Valley must be seen. The villa is situated within the private domain Les Grimaldines overlooking the medieval village Haut de Cagnes, Sea view of Baie des Anges and Cap d'Antibes.

The area is a valuable position near the beaches. The sea is just a 5 min drive or 15 min walk, 15 minutes by car to Nice airport. The medieval village of Haut de Cagnes area is fairly untouched by modern life, although you will find everything you need in Cagnes Sur Mer including one of the best covered Provencal farmers Markets of the Cote d'Azur.

With restaurant, casino, cinema, concerts and exhibitions, Cagnes Sur Mer offers a large choice of sports and cultural activities. The famous shopping mall Polygone Riviera is a 10 min drive.

The villa is divided into two sections on the main floor separating the living spaces from the four bedrooms providing great comfort.

On the main floor is the living spaces which flows easily into each other while providing a noiseless environment and peace in the bedrooms detached in its own house with a connecting corridor. Sliding glass doors lead from the living room onto the pool terrace and garden.

Two of the bedrooms have access to covered terraces overlooking the mountains and Haut de Cagnes. One bedroom is facing mountain view while the other looks onto the garden. All bedrooms have spacious wardrobes.

There are three bathrooms on the main floor. Two with WC, bathtubs, walk-in-showers and bidet. The third bath serves as guest WC with walk-in-shower in connection to the main living area.

In connection to the living area is the fully equipped kitchen.

On the first floor is a Wine cellar, 1 guest bedroom currently used during high season, utility room, garage and storage areas. On this floor there are two storage areas wardrobes style.

The villa is heated / air-conditioned via a reversible heating system with four outlets. Today's master bedroom has its own air-condition unit.

There is direct access to the pool area and large covered terraces from the spacious living room through sliding glass doors.

The pool area is with outdoor shower, wood fire BBQ and stunning views.

The bed- and bathrooms are in need of a surface renovation and come with great property potential.

The first floor could easily be converted into a self-contained 3 / 4 room apartment for spacious rental, vacation or service staff accommodation.

The current owner explored several options and sought architectural advice and plans for a new kitchen on the main floor turning the old kitchen into a library or office, architectural advice on the next pages.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
