Property Description

Menton Annonciade, beautiful property of more than 4 hectares, in a dominant position facing east, it enjoys a panoramic view of the surrounding mountains and the sea. This property which was inspired by the luxuriance of nature, hillside to the top and beautifully planted with various species including oaks, chestnut trees, centuries-old olive trees, conifers, fruit trees (orange, lemon ...) and exotic make it a unique place.

Served by a private road has two buildings of approximately 70m² and 80m² to renovate on a plot of 1053m² with direct access, a house in poor condition of approximately 60m² on a plot of 1695m² below as well as a ruin (non habitable) to restore on a plot of 2128m² both accessible by a pedestrian path.

Several other plots border the last two houses. Several other plots border the last two houses. On the northern part of the property is a forest with a total area of around 23000m². A source whose purity has been verified and several parking spaces complete this rare property. Possibility to sell the ruin and 60m² house separately. Land in a natural zone non-constructible.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
