Property Description

Beautiful Stone Bastide for Sale within walking distance of Fayence village with stunning views of the countryside.

The original part of the house dates back to the 1800's and has been tastefully extended in the 1950's and again in 2000 to create 2 large master suites.

In the original part of the house is the country-style kitchen and various storage rooms and laundry. This leads into a huge living/dining area with double height ceiling and into a large master suite with bathroom and dressing room.

Upstairs is another large guest suite with sitting/office area and bedroom with bathroom and toilet. There are a further 2 bedrooms, 1 en-suite with a shower room and a separate shower room with toilet.

Adjoined to the house is a covered terrace and BBQ area, the perfect place to entertain.

The salt-water pool is heated and has a covered terrace, a good place to take shade and admire the beautiful view of the hills.

This charming stone property is a rarity and should not be missed!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
