Property Description

Overlooking the Principality of Monaco, like a balcony suspended above the Mediterranean, the small town of La Turbie seems from afar to float in the azure, dominated by its gigantic Trophy of Augustus.

Under Roman authority from the 1st century BC. J.-C., La Turbie passed under the domination of the Republic of Genoa in the Middle Ages before becoming part of the Principality of Monaco. It was not until the end of the 19th century that La Turbie became part of France and one of the most popular cities for tourists during the “Belle Époque”.

La Turbie new apartment with sea view close to Monaco

La Turbie has managed to preserve the charm of its glorious past, almost intact, with a harmonious blend of classical, medieval and baroque styles. The village was built partially with stones recovered from the ruins of the Trophy of Augustus. Some unique remains have stood the test of time: the cobbled streets and vaulted passageways, the beautiful Baroque church and the Roman fountain.

Between Nice and Monaco, overlooking the peninsula of Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat, this new residence is nestled facing the sea. Discover our new top-of-the-range program in a green setting with trees and the imprint of Provençal essences. Located in a quiet area, two minutes from the village of La Turbie and eight minutes from the Principality, you'll enjoy a highly coveted location allowing privileged access to Monegasque life. A haven of peace in the heart of La Turbie

Surrounded by plane trees and umbrella pines, the 13 accommodations are enhanced by modern, Provençal architecture. Available from 2 to 4 rooms, all the apartments benefit from a 180° sea view and are equipped with bright living rooms extended by deep terraces covered with glass railings opening onto the horizon. We have carefully selected the materials and services for your future apartment, combining modernity and authenticity. We have imagined for you spacious accommodation where life is good.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.
