Property Description

Ideally located between Cannes and Saint-Tropez, Saint-Raphaël benefits from a privileged location which gives it an exceptional living environment. A natural paradise for golfers, Saint-Raphaël offers three magnificent golf courses with breathtaking views of the Esterel massif. Living to the rhythm of the Provençal markets, the city is enveloped in a peaceful, soft and warm atmosphere. Saint-Raphaël offers a range of water and land activities for sports lovers (diving, water skiing, hiking, etc.)

Reflecting an economic and ecological dynamism, the Palais des Congr s acts in favour of cultural events by allying with protecting the environment. With clean lines, sober volumes, and wide openings in terraces and balconies with glass railings, this new residence in Saint Raphael is firmly in line with concise and measured contemporary architecture with classic resonances.

The four-sided roof, the metal pergola, the coatings in light brown and ocher colours, and the plantations of Mediterranean species perfectly integrate the building and its green spaces into its Proven al environment. On the heights of Saint-Rapha l, this residence is located in a mainly residential area. Small apartment buildings stand alongside numerous neo-Proven al villas surrounded by gardens with swimming pools.

Following the shape of the land that hosts it, the residence has four living levels: a garden level, a ground floor and two floors.

The surrounding park alternates between vegetal and mineral atmospheres, mixing quickset hedges, Mediterranean shrubs, flower beds and boulders on the natural barrier. The sixteen high-stemmed trees, scattered over the grassy parterres, illustrate the richness of the southern vegetation: Aleppo pines and Judas trees adjoin false pepper trees, oaks and olive trees. Four palm trees enrich the whole and bring a more coastal touch.
