Property Description

Ideally located between Nice and Antibes, Villeneuve-Loubet offers all the charms of the South of France. From the medieval village to the new town extending to the port, the town benefits from 300 days of sunshine a year with, as a backdrop, the azure of the sky and the sea and the green of the mountains. Less than 10 km from Sophia Antipolis, you are at the gateway to a dynamic employment pool (2,230 companies). Between working life and holidays, Villeneuve-Loubet is the perfect place for a new slice of life.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of ours agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
