Property Description

The seaside for neighbour, it is in this setting where daily life is punctuated by the seasons and the mild iodized air that this renovated residence in Nice fits.

In the city of Nice, which is full of cultural treasures and remarkable sites, this new address rises in the city called the “Jewel of the Côte d’Azur”.

In the heart of the Vernier district, the renovated residence takes place in a residential and commercial environment, close to the hypercentre.

All the amenities, schools, sports facilities, restaurants and services make this district an exceptional anchor point for an address to discover without delay.

This renovated residence in Nice center, yet located in the heart of the city, offers 21 quietly oriented apartments, all benefiting from vast outdoor spaces open to nature.

In addition, their occupants have cellars and parking spaces or garages in the basement.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
