Property Description

Grasse is a dynamic city between sea and mountains, having obtained the registration by Unesco as a cultural heritage of Humanity for its know-how related to perfume. The industry now employs 2,700 people. Some great perfume houses such as Fragonard, Molinard and Galimard can be visited and have been established there for a very long time.

A young and dynamic commune, Grasse is also a city of art and history between sea and mountains with an exceptional architectural heritage.

A university center will also see the light of day by 2025.

Indeed, the heart of the old town, the former courthouse in Grasse has been transformed into a university campus. The project provides for 13 classrooms, two lecture halls and three laboratories.

This creation of a university center will welcome 2000 students by 2025 in the city of perfumes. This campus will complement the branch of the Ecole Supérieure de la Parfumerie, several masters and engineering schools.

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property.
