Property Description

A true urban, student and cultural destination, Le Cannet combines the facilities of life and the conveniences of a big city in a Mediterranean softness. This new residence is a residence located a few minutes from the new covered market, the cinema, the municipal crèche and many local shops.

With a peaceful and idyllic living environment, the city benefits from a strategic location to reach the A8 motorway in a few minutes and go to Aix-en-Provence or Italy. In the heart of rue d'Ormesson, this new address offers its inhabitants the perfect balance between dynamism and relaxed lifestyle under the Mediterranean sun.

Between elegance and architectural modernism, this new residence near Boulevard Carnot respects the characteristics and identity of the place. Within the residence, the garden allows residents to enjoy an environment planted with various species. The green spaces embellished with flowerbeds will make the seasons parade, thus offering a pleasant decor conducive to the well-being of its occupants.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
