Property Description

The district of this new residence in NICE CENTER extends over a thin area between the Cimiez district and the Cours du Paillon, from the Palais des Expositions to the A8 motorway.

It takes advantage of the banks of the Paillon and the recent development of its walks.

Neighbor of Cimiez, it benefits from the proximity of the historical and cultural sites of the district, in

The south of the district borders the Nice Acropolis exhibition center and the facilities that adjoin it, such as the Jean Bouin swimming pool.

Parc du Vinaigrier, to the east, is less than 20 minutes by bike from the bottom of the district.

Along the boulevard there are many shops, especially near the Lycée Guillaume Apollinaire.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
