Property Description

Located just 8 minutes from La Turbie, the principality of Monaco is a small independent city-state on the French Mediterranean coast known for its high-end casinos, marina and prestigious Formula 1 Grand Prix which takes place in the streets of Monaco once a year. Monte-Carlo, its main district, is home to elegant casinos and the Salle Garnier, the opera house.

Between Nice and Monaco, overlooking the peninsula of Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat, this new development of LA TURBIE is nestled facing the sea.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
