B energy rating (emissions)

The building has a B energy rating in emissions, meaning a reduction in CO<sub>2</sub> emissions and a significant reduction in the building's energy demand.

This rating is achieved by adopting an improved building envelope (thermal insulation on the façades, improvements on the roof, and efficient carpentry and glass) and high-efficiency thermal installations.

This rating equates to an anticipated 70% energy savings and hence to significant economic savings as compared to a house with a F energy rating.

* Estimated energy saving calculation of a typical 90 m<sup>2</sup> dwelling with an A rating compared to an F rating reference home in accordance with the "Energy Efficiency Rating of Buildings" published by the Ministry of Industry, Energy and Tourism in November 2015, and other regulations that complement and/or could replace it.

** Guaranteed minimum saving is dependent on water consumption (EWH) in the building as a whole taking into account its location and the minimum occupancy values according to the current applicable standard.
