Property Description

This high-quality barn conversion, located on the edge of a village, was partially finished in 2023 and offers over 90 sqm of living space. The property sits on a plot of about 1500 sqm with three additional old buildings, providing potential for expansion.

The entrance hall features a spiral staircase leading to a master bedroom, while the lower level includes a shower room, a separate toilet, and the main living room with a separate entrance, wood-burning stove, and a mezzanine floor serving as a second bedroom or study, accessed by another spiral staircase. The house boasts exposed beams, original stone walls, and marble flooring. The kitchen and dining room overlook the garden. State-of-the-art insulation, including hemp-based wall insulation, results in an energy performance rating of C, making the house cost-effective and easy to heat. Additionally, the property includes a large attached garage with a concrete floor and other parts of the original barn, offering potential for future development.

The location provides easy access to village amenities, as well as the nearby forest and lakes, which are popular among tourists and residents.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
